Corporate governance

Multilateral agreement on the information exchange between the ECB and the anti-money laundering authorities of the EEA Member States

On 9 January 2019 the Governing Council approved the entry of the ECB into a multilateral agreement on the practical modalities for the exchange of information between the ECB and the competent anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism (AML/CFT) authorities of EEA Member States. The agreement was signed by the ECB on 10 January 2019 and will be published on the ECB's website.

Single Code of Conduct for high-level officials

The single Code of Conduct for all ECB decision-makers and high-level officials, which was endorsed by the Governing Council in December 2018, entered into force on 1 January 2019. The new code takes into account the ECB's specificities as a central bank, a banking supervisor and an EU institution. It is the latest measure undertaken by the ECB to further strengthen and refine its good governance and integrity frameworks and responds to requests from the European Parliament and recommendations of the European Ombudsman. The previous Codes of Conduct for the members of the Governing Council, the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board have been repealed. The Code of Conduct for high-level ECB Officials was published on the ECB's website on 16 January 2019.

Banking supervision

Appointment of temporary administrators

On 1 January 2019 the Governing Council did not object to the proposal by the Supervisory Board to appoint three temporary administrators and a three-member surveillance committee to take charge of Banca Carige and replace its Board of Directors.
